

COUNCIL SHAKE-UP IS LAUNCHED OVER CLUB RAID

ACCUSATIONS BARTERED AT HOT SESSION

Supplanting of Bacus in the Department of Streets by Edwards, Aim of Ordinance That Soderberg Introduces

Same Measure, That Passes to Print, Places Bacus at Head of Finance-Revenue; Report Made on Pipe Loan

In one of the bitterest storms of recrimination that has swept the present city council, preparations were made in this morning's session for the redistribution of two of the commissionships and for action by the district attorney in the charges of misuse of public property which have been previously made by Commissioner Frederick Soderberg against Commissioner William J. Bacus.

One ordinance, which went through for its passage to print, provides for the transfer of Bacus from the street department to that of finance and revenue. It provides for the transfer of Commissioner W. H. Edwards from the finance department to that which Bacus has held.

Commissioners Soderberg, Morse and Edwards voted in favor of the ordinance. Mayor John L. Davis opposed it. Bacus was excused from voting as an interested party.

Before this shake-up came the report of Soderberg's investigation into the lending of certain city property to a gun club preserve at Alviso in which Bacus is said to have been interested. On Soderberg's motion the findings in his investigation were ordered sent to District Attorney Ezra W. Deoto for action. The resolution to this effect went through by the same vote.

SODERBERG PRESENTS VOLUMINOUS REPORT

Soderberg tossed the issue before the council by presenting a lengthy report of his investigation, which involved the lending of several sections of pipe and pump to the Oakland Gun Club, at Alviso, by Bacus. After the reading of the report Soderberg presented his resolution and ordinance.

He then went to the department of revenue and finance, where he presented a report of his investigation into the alleged misuse of public property by Bacus. He stated that Bacus had been found guilty of several offenses, including the misuse of public property and the failure to pay taxes on city property.

DEMAND MADE FOR STENOGRAPHIC REPORT

At this point Soderberg hotly demanded that a stenographer be brought in to take down the remarks of Bacus on the issue and that the stenographer be sworn in as a Commissioner. City Clerk Lon Cummings secured a stenographer from his office.

"Did you and Commissioner Soderberg promise Inspector V. J. Foley that he would be made chief of police if he helped you in your raid on the Gun Club?" asked Bacus of Commissioner Edwards.

"That might be along your line," replied Edwards.

"Your line is so small I wouldn't touch it," said Bacus.

At this point Commissioner Morse declared that all the council members had been put in an embarrassing position and that he did not believe Commissioner Bacus guilty of any criminal intent in lending city property to the gun club.

BACUS SAVES EDWARDS DESIRES HIS PLACE

Soderberg then had City Clerk Cummings repeat as nearly as he could remember the charges made by Bacus.

At the conclusion of the session Soderberg issued a statement in which he declared that Edwards has desired his place at the head of the department of streets for a long time and that he has been forced to resign his position as Commissioner of Streets by the action of the council.

Ten Children, With Parents, Helpless in Flu-Hit House

Twelve persons, prostrate and helpless with the influenza, were discovered by the police today when an investigation was made at the home of William Burke, 946 Sixty-third street.

In response to a call from neighbors, Corporal Cox went to the home. When no one answered the bell he peered through a window and saw, lying on a bed in one of the lower rooms, two small children. They mentioned to him to come in.

Then Cox discovered that Burke, his wife and ten children were all desperately ill and in dire need of a nurse and medical attendance. The officer reported that there was plenty of clothing and food on hand.

Secretary J. H. Mellen of the health department arranged to have four of the children, Arthur, Genevieve, Persis and Edward sent to the county hospital, where they are under the care of Dr. Scudder. A nurse was sent at once to care for the others.

Man Pleads For Release Of His Son

Judge Urged to Permit Young Man to See Wife and Baby in San Francisco.

To plead for the release of his 23-year-old son, Alanson Sessions, held in jail here and who will appear next Tuesday before Judge Quinn on a charge of criminal syndicalism, Probation Officer H. A. Sessions of Fresno county arrived in Oakland today and presented letters from the Fresno County Jail and from county authorities.

"Release my son so that he may go to San Francisco to the wife and to the tiny babe he has never seen, and I will be responsible for him to the court," is the plea of the father. "He is only a boy with a penchant for reforming the world. His wife in San Francisco has just had a child. The babe he has never seen. He was formerly secretary of the Pacific Coast Operative League which had for its purpose the reduction of prices and the abolishment of profits by the establishment of stores."

The story of how the youth, a graduate from Fresno high school and from junior college, left the Fresno County Jail, where he was held for the purpose of his release, was told by the boy's father today in Judge Quinn's courtroom.

DRUG SQUAD UNDER TEST AT U. OF C.

Caffeine and Aspirin Being Administered to Student Volunteers; Effects of the Narcotics on Body Sought

Directed by the department of psychology at the University of California, drugs and narcotics are being administered to students at the State university to ascertain their effects for the benefit of mankind. Daily doses of certain drugs are given to students in psychology who are then kept under observation by the college heads.

The names of students undergoing the drug experiment have not been announced by the campus officials, more than a dozen students, all men, are forming the testing laboratories for the deadly drugs. The experiments are being carried out only on volunteers among the student body in the psychology class of Professor M. Stratton, head of the department of psychology, and Warner Brown, assistant professor in the same branch of academic work.

Caffeine, the drug which scientists claim makes coffee deadly to the human system, through its power of stimulation, and aspirin, are the two drugs being used in the great experiment in the experiments, according to Professor Brown. The effect of the two drugs on respiration, breathing, the action and the reaction with which the brain responds to tests are noted by the college experts. The experiments, Professor Brown declares, will extend to the end of the present semester and until then no results of the workings of the drugs on the human system will be known.

In conducting the drug tests in Berkeley the University of California has followed the footsteps of Johns Hopkins university, where students were similarly treated in the interests of the welfare of the human race. At Columbia University, Professor H. L. Hollingworth in extensive experiments in the use of caffeine proved that the drug present in coffee resulted in temporary increased efficiency. It was with a gradual slowing down of mental machinery resulting later from continued use of the stimulant, that the students of the university, who are considerably smaller than the average person takes when he buys aspirin in a drug store are given in the department of psychology, where students are given the drugs.

BARRICADED GAMMERS UNDER TEST AT U. OF C.

Eighteen Men Taken in Raid When Police Batter Down Clubroom Door With Big Sledges; Many Get Away

Blundering look-outs stationed at the door, a squad of police made a sensational raid early this morning on a gambling rendezvous at 1729 Seventh street, known as the Pullman Club, broke through heavily barred doors with sledges and fire axes and arrested eighteen men.

So suddenly did the police swoop down upon the den that no time was given the occupants of the place to conceal the evidences of gambling. When the police broke through the door and entered the room tables had been overturned and money and cards were scattered on the floor in wild confusion.

Besides the eighteen men who were arrested, the police estimate that at least thirty more had been engaged in gambling, but in the confusion of the raid, and several through an exit in the rear, which was unknown to the police.

SECRET PASSAGE LETS MANY ESCAPE

The proprietor of the place is said to have made good his escape through this secret passage, and although a vigorous search was conducted for those who disappeared from the room, they succeeded in hiding themselves in the congestion of inter-communicating buildings.

The four men who had been taken in the act of gambling were segregated from the rest and placed in one corner of the room. They are: James Hamilton and Tom Oakley. They are held this morning in the city prison and bail has been fixed at $100 each.

Other officers who were arrested on a charge of visiting are: John Bunnell, Walter Hinson, O. Hinkle, Samuel Bishop, Lee Marshall, Joe Walford, John Miller, Fred Kennedy, W. C. Young, K. Hoover Can Bear Out Charges Of American Navy's Failure To Co-Operate, Sims Asserts

Former Food Administrator Called As Witness Before Senate Investigating Body in Fight Over War Conduct

"He Was First to Make Me Realize the Germans Were Winning War," Admiral's Reason for Hearing Him

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Herbert Hoover, former food administrator, called to testify for Admiral Sims before the Senate investigating committee, investigating the Daniels-Sims controversy.

Chairman Hale of the subcommittee, announced that Hoover will be called to testify Saturday.

Sims wants Hoover to corroborate his testimony regarding the desperation of the Allies when America entered the war. He said Hoover gave him the first possible realization of defeat of the Allies in London shortly after he arrived.

Sims made the disclosure that in June, 1917, he urged Secretary Daniels to strip the American coast completely of "southern protection" and transfer the ships to British waters. Daniels, testimony showed, refused to entertain the suggestion. In a telegram to Daniels, Sims said: "Sims urges 'STRIP HOME COAST OF SHIPS'."

He said that the shortsightedness of public opinion and its effect on the distribution of our forces, but the fact remains that we can well afford to strip our coast of sea-going protection and concentrate it all in the critical area on this side of the Atlantic.

Ten days later, finding his suggestion still unheeded, Sims sent another message to Daniels again urging that American ships be transferred to European waters.

General Strike is Defeated on Vote

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Indications that the Navy Department withheld sending all available American naval vessels to European waters early in the war because of a desire to keep the main body of the nation's sea strength intact for possible contingencies were contained in Admiral Sims' testimony before the Senate committee investigating the naval conduct of the war.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 11.—Mrs. Emma Winifred, youthful divorcee and mother of two children, has confessed to the theft of $6500 from the Aurora State bank, according to the police today. High Lights On U. S. Naval Quiz

Herbert Hoover, former food administrator, called to testify, at the request of Admiral Sims, who said Hoover was the first to make him realize that the allies were near defeat when America entered the war.

Sims testified: That failure of the navy department to keep promises frequently embarrassed him with the allies. That his predictions regarding Germany winning war unless allies were given closer co-operation were being "justified by results" before aid was forthcoming.

That the navy department, replying to repeated requests for battle-ship squadron, cabled that four would be sent "after docking."

policy were, however, that while it stated our intention to co-operate to the fullest degree, still co-operation was conditioned first upon an adequate defense of our own waters and next upon the future position of the United States after this war was finished," said the admiral. A message received from the Navy Department, dated July 5, to the effect that several small vessels were being sent to augment his forces indicated that they were at last beginning to realize that there was a war being fought in European waters," declared Admiral Sims.

On July 30, Admiral Sims testified, he sent the Navy Department a review of the discussion of the allied naval council and reiterated his earlier requests for more small craft with which to fight submarines.

Even as late as January, 1918, he was still calling for destroyers, auxiliary cruisers, minesweepers, and other small craft, he declared, his predictions that the allies would lose the war unless the United States gave more complete naval co-operation were being justified by results, said the admiral.

On April 22, August 24 and September 19, 1918, Admiral Sims said he wrote the department expressing his disappointment at the apparent non-success of the destroyer building program in the United States and urging the necessity of "speeding up" production of anti-submarine craft and sending every available small vessel to the war zone even at the expense of the protection of the coasts of the United States.

Advices Caution in Soldier Aid Program

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Enactment of any of the soldier aid proposals would threaten serious consequences to the financial welfare of the nation, Secretary of the Treasury Houston today told the House ways and means committee.

"In whatever way you approach these proposals, they are certain to increase the burdens of every man, woman and child in the United States," Houston said.

The United States would be thrown into the same situation as Europe by a large issue of bonds, Houston said, adding that prices are up 500 per cent there as against 100 per cent here.

GUN CLUB RAID LEADS TO SHAKE-UP

stated that 240 feet of pipe valued at $119 had been appropriated by Bacus and his friends to their private use; that a thorough search of the club had also been made, and that city employees had been detailed to help in the work at the gun club, installing the material, that city materials had been used to carry men and materials to and from the club, and that Bacus had, by accepting gratuitous services from city employees, placed himself under obligation to them to the detriment of the municipal service.

The recommendation made in the report, on which were based the ordinances switching Bacus and Edwards and turning the transcript over to the district attorney for possible action, were also that city employees guilty of misconduct in the performance of their duties be reprimanded by the commissioner having charge of the department of streets in future, and that the pump and pump involved be returned to the city.

The case this morning developed that Edwards, who is slated for Bacus' place under the ordinance, was a member of the party that raided the gun club grounds at 2 o'clock Saturday morning, and that his car was used on the trip. Edwards also admitted today that he drove the party to Alviso.

The statement was made by Bacus today that he had been informed that Inspector Coley, who accompanied Inspector Edwards and Edwards on the trip, had told the gun club keeper that it would "mean a big thing for him" to participate in the raid.

Coley's report on the trip, demanded yesterday by Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen, was presented this morning, but was returned to the inspector with the demand that it be made more elaborate and specific.

U. S. Marshal Holohan Is Asked to Sift Charges of Police Beating of Franco

In the face of charges of brutality from two different sources, and with Manuel Franco in a hospital suffering with three broken ribs, Patrolman P. A. Pierce of the Oakland police department maintains that he was not rough with Franco, whom he arrested Monday night. The charges are under investigation today by Chief of Police J. P. Lynch, who has refused to comment on the circumstances surrounding the case.

The first complaint came when Manuel Franco, owner of a restaurant at 1550 Fifth street, arrested by Pierce on a charge of having liquor in his possession, complained to Commissioner Francis G. Krull in San Francisco that he had been brutally treated. He was examined and found to be suffering from three broken ribs, one of which pierced his lungs, according to the hospital physician. He was removed to St. Luke's hospital in San Francisco, where he is now slightly improved.

Francisco, who is 37 years old, said that following his arrest he was taken to the police station, where he was beaten and kicked, both before and after they were arrested last February on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. The men who complained were Robert Cox, William Green, Joe Casey and Henry C. Matson. Casey, who is an ex-service man, said that he received a fractured rib from the beating that was administered him by Pierce.

FIVE ACCUSE PIERCE

The second charge against Pierce was made yesterday by five Richmond men, who complained to Chief of Police Lynch that they were beaten and kicked, both before and after they were arrested last February on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. The men who complained were Robert Cox, William Green, Joe Casey and Henry C. Matson. Casey, who is an ex-service man, said that he received a fractured rib from the beating that was administered him by Pierce.

CAMPBELL QUILTS CITY STREET JOB

The question raised yesterday before the City Council as to whether the legality of Marston Campbell functioning as both superintendent of streets and chief of construction of the school building program, was settled this morning when Campbell presented his resignation as superintendent of streets and ex-officio city engineer to Commissioner of Streets William J. Bacus.

The resignation was presented to the council by Commissioner Bacus and acceptance voted. The resignation is to take effect March 15, and at that time, according to Commissioner Bacus, Campbell will be again appointed to the position without remuneration, to serve until his successor is appointed.

With the resignation Bacus laid before the council an opinion from City Attorney H. L. Hagah, determining that there is nothing in the charter to prohibit a person detailed to other duties from functioning as a superintendent of streets, but that there was question as to his ability to draw his salary from the school department while holding both positions. The situation does not affect the validity of street work, he declared.

S. F. LANDLORDS SCORE TENANTS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Apartment house owners in San Francisco had their inning today before the Welfare Committee of the Board of Supervisors in an investigation which has resulted from charges of profiteering brought by tenants both individually and as an association.

During the hearing today many apartment house owners intimated that the investigation properly should be abandoned, as it would tend to minimize the expense of the Democratic convention.

In explanation of the increase in rent apartment house owners asserted there had been increases in upkeep and maintenance ranging from 10 to 300 per cent within the last five years.

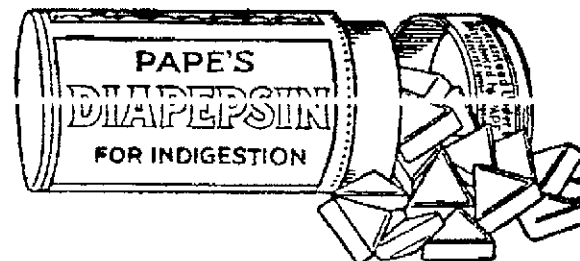

They denied the publicity accorded to those in the complaint, two of the speakers leveling rigid forefingers at the press box in the chambers of the Board of Supervisors, and indignantly accusing the press of "giving the city a black eye all over the country, particularly at a time when it expects to entertain the Democratic convention."

Save the Babies

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent, or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they act on the circulation and lead to congestive sickness, death. There can be no danger in the use of Castoria if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher as it contains no opiates or narcotics of any kind.

When Aristotle Practised Optics

It is not generally known that Aristotle was a pioneer in the science of optics, but we have it from the pen of Rabelais, the famous French author, that: "Aristotle taught the art of reading dim writings with the aid of spectacles."

If that immortal philosopher could be on earth again he would undoubtedly marvel at the rapid strides made by the science he was so instrumental in developing. HIT-TOX PLAYERS SCORE

Another absorbing powerful drama is in follow next week the sparkling comedy, "The Hit-Tox," which is a delightful production of the Fulton Theatre. This week's play, "The Truth," concluded to be the greatest play of that great American playwright, Clyde Fitch, which is produced. It has been produced in almost every country in Europe, when Clyde Fitch's fame as a creator of strong, masterful dramas was at its zenith. This week's play, "The Five Minutes," a comedy, starring Guy Bolton, author of "Dolly with a Hustle," is making one of the best of the Broadway Theatre. It is a comedy, with a plot that is as fascinating and as well as being as the humor and wit are contagious and appealing. Its story of the "Honeybees," who are a group of business of their home town is a thoroughly enjoyable one. "The Five Minutes" and "The Truth" are announced for the near future.

HUCKLEBERRY FINN IN KINEMA ATTRACTIONS
The Kinema presents this week Mark Twain's famous "Huckleberry Finn." It is the tale of the boy who faced who "died" from civilization, boarded a raft on the Mississippi, and ran into adventures. The play is a comedy, with a plot that is as fascinating and as well as being as the humor and wit are contagious and appealing. Its story of the "Honeybees," who are a group of business of their home town is a thoroughly enjoyable one. "The Five Minutes" and "The Truth" are announced for the near future.

AMERICAN PRESENTS WILL ROGERS FILM
Will Rogers, imitable star, philosopher, an excellent and expert of the "natural" art of acting, which he alone is the sole master, is the magnet that this week is drawing record crowds to the American. The name "Will Rogers" is a lure; the theater-going public remember "Filibuster" and his other notable film successes, and "Water, Water Everywhere" his present vehicle, is no less attractive. Alice Joyce offers "Slaves of Pride," one of her new releases since her return from war work. It is a big, vital story of a woman who teaches a man the saving of pride. Her rare charm makes it unique. John Wharry Lewis and his orchestra and Edgard Bayless at the organ offer the musical diversions.

MAHEL NORMAND IN "JINX"
Appears at T. and D. Theatre. If there's the atmosphere of the circus at the T. and D. Theatre, it's because Mahel Normand has brought her embryo circus to town in the "Jinx," a circus comedy with all the trimmings. "Jinx" depicts Mahel Normand as the unwelcome member of a one-ring circus aggregation. She is the awkward, brooding jinx of the troupe. Her escapades transcend anything she has done for the screen.

KOLB AND DILL PROVE FAVORITES AT YE LIBERTY
Kolb and Dill in "Wet and Dry" continues to prove Oakland's most popular entertainment, the proof of which is in evidence at Ye Liberty Playhouse. Ever since last Sunday evening, the two comedians will be in Oakland until the end of the week, concluding their engagement on Saturday evening. Next Sunday afternoon will mark the start of a two-week picture engagement, "The Confession," with Henry Vallin in the principal role. The play is a comedy, with a plot that is as fascinating and as well as being as the humor and wit are contagious and appealing. Its story of the "Honeybees," who are a group of business of their home town is a thoroughly enjoyable one. "The Five Minutes" and "The Truth" are announced for the near future.

"DAY AT THE AUTO RACES" IS HERE AT COLUMBIA
The season's happiest girlish regatta is an appropriate description for "Day at the Auto Races," the newest musical comedy to be produced at the Columbia Theatre, where it is running. The play is a comedy, with a plot that is as fascinating and as well as being as the humor and wit are contagious and appealing. Its story of the "Honeybees," who are a group of business of their home town is a thoroughly enjoyable one. "The Five Minutes" and "The Truth" are announced for the near future.

VETERANS OF WORLD WAR LEAD ON PANTAGES HILL
Veterans of the world war predominate on the vaudeville hill at the Pantages Theatre this week. Leonard Barry is a purveyor of acrobatic, equilibrist, singer and dancer. Assisting Lieutenant Barry is a young woman billed merely as "Miss" but other due of veterans are the Marx brothers, who are playing a "girl" show, so the "Hazelton Heroes" is a welcome addition to the list of acts. Other acts that please are: Gidea and Phillips, James Lichter, Maria Hamilton & Co., a Pathe News weekly and a Pathe comedy.

Ethel Clayton is featured at the Franklin Theatre in "Young Mrs. Winthrop," from the famous stage success by Bronson Howard. It shows the "jazz" madness of a young wife, whose chase after the phantom pleasure disastrous to her little household. Friend husband, through an innocent but shrewd-looking act, with a very fishy widow, abets in bringing on a speedy disaster. How the tangled web is strangled out by an old lawyer friend of the family forms a highly dramatic climax to this picture.

Burglar Discovered at Work Gets Away
Since a burglar pry open the lock on the front door of the residence of S. G. Erickson, 324 Cypress street, neighbors telephoned to police last night. The burglar could not be found by the officers, but evidence of his presence was disclosed by opened drawers and burnt patches on the floor. Nothing of value had been taken.

CLUB REHEARSES PLAY
Amateur Theatre of the late evening high school drama, "The Boy in the Iron Mask," is being rehearsed by the club. The play is a comedy, with a plot that is as fascinating and as well as being as the humor and wit are contagious and appealing. Its story of the "Honeybees," who are a group of business of their home town is a thoroughly enjoyable one. "The Five Minutes" and "The Truth" are announced for the near future.

Alleged Wine Burglar Is Held for Trial

Dennis Armstrong, charged with having stolen a 20-gallon cask of wine from the cellar of Louis Ruych, clerk in the court of Judge James G. Quinn, three weeks ago, was held to answer to the superior court for burglary by Police Judge George Samuels. Armstrong, who is colored, conducted his own defense. He admitted taking the wine to a vacant house in Chester street, but insisted that he had found the cask in the street.

Oakland Couple Wedded at San Jose

Surprising their friends in business and social circles, Miss Helen L. Munro and Hugo K. Welch slipped away yesterday to San Jose, where they obtained a marriage license and were married. Welch is superintendent of the Cadillac Motor Car company in Oakland and his bride has been a resident of this city for a number of years. At his office today it was said that word had been received of the marriage, but that it was not known when the pair would return from their honeymoon.

King Says East Favors Sale of Beer

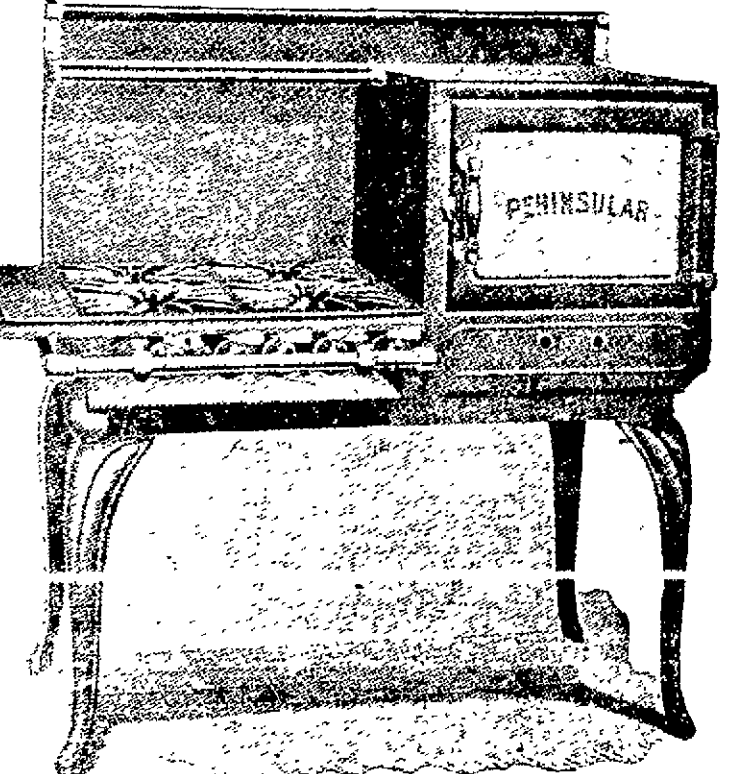

Joseph H. King, former president and now a director of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, states that a month's trip through eastern states has convinced him that the greater bulk of the eastern population is against strict enforcement of prohibition, that they consider it too drastic. Return to an era of light wines and beer is the dream of a vast majority of people in New York, Chicago, Pittsburgh and other large cities of the east, King says. He talked with prominent men in all sections and learned that, although saloons are not wanted, the $59,000,000 appropriation by congress to enforce prohibition laws is being openly denounced.

King returned last night from his trip in the interests of the Alameda naval base site and the return of railroads to private ownership. Regarding the naval base question King said that due to the economic campaign instituted in congress, no appropriation will be made this year. He asserted that no site had been decided upon, but that Mare Island had been eliminated because of the narrow channel and shallow water.

Navy Radio to Take Business Messages

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Passage of the Pointdefence resolution by the Senate whereby the navy would be instructed to make its radio facilities available for commercial and press messages was hailed by exporters and importers here today as an advance towards development of international trade. Communication with Honolulu and Japan would be greatly facilitated by the Pointdefence resolution, it is believed. The navy has two stations in Honolulu, as well as three on this coast.

MRS. SMELTZER TO ASK DIVORCE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—As a sequel to the $50,000 damage suit in which William G. Smeltzer charged Rev. John F. Poucher with alienating the affections of his wife, Mrs. Erma Smeltzer, and which was dismissed by a jury yesterday after fifteen minutes of deliberation, will come Mrs. Smeltzer's suit for divorce.

Many of the same charges that were bandied back and forth in the action against the former pastor of Central Methodist church, will be aired again when the divorce action is contested in court. Smeltzer has filed a cross-complaint to his wife's action and she has filed her answer to this. It is known that Mrs. Smeltzer will charge him with cruelty and neglect and that he will persist in his claims that her affections were won by the San Francisco pastor.

The case, which has been on for two weeks in Judge Bernard F. Flood's court, came to an abrupt ending late yesterday afternoon when the jury filed out, deliberated a few minutes, and returned with the verdict exonerating Poucher. Mrs. Poucher took her two boys and left the courtroom. Mrs. Smeltzer's face was hidden under the brim of a broad hat, and Smeltzer maintained an expression of indifference. Poucher hurried to his wife. "I knew it would be all right," he said, and the wife added, "We have had perfect faith, and that has helped us to bear up under the strain."

The case has attracted a large crowd to the courtrooms and in it was included the charge that Poucher and Mrs. Smeltzer had registered at an Oakland hotel.

MAN "FORGETS," GIRL'S PLEASURE TRIP IN DANGER

This time it was the man who forgot. When H. R. Drew, who was calling on a young woman at the home of Mrs. M. Conlisk, 5662 Ocean View Drive, last evening was entrusted with a package of baggage checks belonging to the young woman he did not know they possessed the properties of mental dynamite. When he forgot to deliver them to the young woman's father in San Francisco telephone lines across the bay were kept busy, the emergency hospital was notified, and the police were interrogated.

The owner of the tickets was to sail for Manila this afternoon and, with baggage and all, she was supposed to be on board the ship at 11 o'clock this morning. There were tears that Drew had met with a holdup man or an accident, a young woman was in tears, and a father learned new swear words with each passing hour.

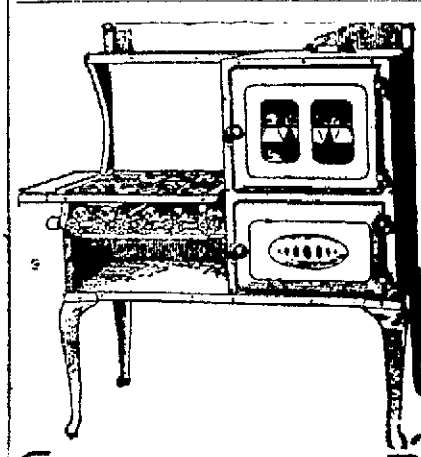

Then Drew showed up and confessed his lapse of memory. The girl was hustled on board ship and is on her way to the Far East. Mrs. Conlisk, who was up most of the night telephoning to the authorities, says it was just like a man.

GIRL LOSES SUIT AGAINST DELANOY

Fred N. Delano, Alameda capitalist, is today cleared of the charges brought against him by Miss Adele Balthasar, piano player, in a suit for $50,000. After deliberating seven minutes a jury in Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco's department returned a verdict in favor of Delano. William H. Donohue and W. H. L. Hynes, counsel for Delano, got forth in their argument that the girl had been made a victim of her mother's desire to extort money from the capitalist. Witnesses were introduced to show that the mother had agreed, at one time, to settle the case for $1,000.

Clark Mosby, detective in the employ of Delano, testified at the trial that he had overheard a conversation between Mrs. Balthasar and Attorney L. W. Love, expressing her willingness to accept the money. The exonerated Delano terminates a long drawn out case which has been pending in the Alameda county courts since April a year ago. It was continued from time to time until Judge P. W. Harris, on March 1, ordered it to go on trial without delay. Delano has been ill and it was on this account that the continuances were granted.

SICKNESS BEGAN WITH BAD COLD

When the bodily resistance is low a minor's exposure to a draft, a sudden change of temperature, wet feet or wet clothing may bring on a cold. Lowered resistance means that the blood is lacking in the elements necessary to maintain health. As long as the blood is weak there is danger from colds or from the germs of any epidemic disease.

An effective way of building up the blood and thus fortifying the system is that demonstrated by Mrs. E. J. Gussell of No. 439 Bay street, St. Paul, Minn. When seen recently at her home Mrs. Gussell appeared bright and energetic and gave no sign of the sickness she had endured for months.

All my trouble dated from a cold," said Mrs. Gussell, "though I have since learned that my system must have been run down when I got the cold. All my strength seemed to have deserted me. I could hardly get up in the morning and grew weaker from day to day. I had dizzy spells and sometimes fainting spells. I sleep didn't rest me. I had headaches that would sometimes last four days at a stretch. I didn't have any color and was very nervous.

I happened to read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and procuring a box began taking them. In about ten days there was some improvement in my condition and I was so pleased that I kept on with the pills. As a result my strength slowly returned. I sleep well now and feel rested in the morning. My color is good and I no longer have headaches or dizzy spells. I always keep Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on hand now and have kept my system so well built up that I no longer have colds.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., 60 cents per box. Write for free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."—Advertisement.

PLANS FOR SAFETY WEEK ANNOUNCED

Plans for Oakland's program of observance for National Safety week, April 1 to 15, will be handled by a committee of local business men headed by Commissioner of Public Health and Safety P. F. Morse. It was announced today.

A tentative plan for the week prepared by Police Chief Elmer Whitehead provides for a series of drills by the fire department with firemen descending from a single rope line from the roof of the First National Bank Building to the ground. Other fire prevention demonstrations will be given at the City Hall Plaza. Boy Scouts will act as traffic officers at all of the principal street intersections during certain hours of the day, according to Whitehead's plan.

Plans are also being made for neighborhood meetings in schools, lodge halls and improvement club rooms at which lectures on safety measures will be given.

The committee working under Commissioner Morse consists of J. J. Roseborough, J. J. Remick, H. C. Campbell, Irving Kahn and Joseph B. Cain.

AMERICAN LEGION GOSSIP

The net receipts of the American Legion ball staged recently by Oakland Post will total about $900, according to present estimates.

The League of Americans, which is composed of five representatives from 25 separate organizations in Oakland, with the object of advancing Americanism and suppressing radicalism, has offered three prizes of $25 each for the three best essays on the general subject of Americanism. The prize contest is confined to school children only. The subject under which high school students will compete is "The True American and What He Stands For." "True Americans as Illustrated by Great Men of History" is the subject under which the children of the intermediate schools will compete. While the prizes are offered, the league will confine their efforts to "True Americans and What May I Do This Year for America." The essays will be selected by competent judges and published. American Legion men will gladly offer suggestions to those who wish to compete.

As part of a general campaign now being waged by the Treasury Department to induce ex-service men to continue war risk insurance under a more satisfactory and economical plan, a representative of the Treasury Department will explain the advantages to be derived from government insurance at the meeting of the Oakland Auditorium next Wednesday evening. He will answer all questions concerning government insurance, its changes from the original plan, benefits kind of policies to suit each individual case, premiums and reinstatements. C. W. Heller, vice-president of the West Coast Life Insurance company, also will speak on the subject of government insurance. The campaign which is being conducted by the Treasury Department is backed by Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations throughout the country. Every man who has taken out government life insurance or who contemplates doing so, has been requested to be present.

War risk insurance records show that every man from Oakland who answered the call to colors following America's entrance into the war with Germany carried life insurance representing in all a total capital of $50,400,000.

The American Legion again steps out with something genuinely constructive when it proposed that all ex-service men of foreign birth, who are not American citizens, shall become naturalized. The Legion's national Americanization commission has requested its state chairman to send in reports of the work each post is doing along the lines of making citizens of those who are not, and better citizens of those who are. The Legion proposed to co-operate.

A plan is now under way in California to create a commission to look after and care for the graves of soldiers from California who died and were buried in France. It is proposed that the commission be appointed from the ranks of ex-service men. It is also proposed to inaugurate legislation which will provide for a monument to be erected at an appropriate place in France in honor of those who died there.

A dispatch from Paris says that new hotels for tourists, which will be ready for mid-summer, are being built throughout the battle area of France and at all points which will be of interest to Americans who wish to visit the ground over which their sons battled for the cause of freedom. How would it seem to sleep in a leather bed over the same spot where you crouched all night in the mud waiting for the first glimpse of dawn and for the whistle's blast which sent you over the top?

It is of interest to many ex-service men to know that the last Y. M. C. A. hut in France has been put down. The hut in the Y. M. C. A. gardens at 186 Rue du Faubourg, Saint-Henri, was torn down on February 12. During the war and after the armistice, many thousands of well as thousands of others, visited these gardens, where refreshments were served.

The French police estimate that there are at the present time 1000 of these deserters in Paris, the majority of whom are men of foreign birth.

Moral conditions at the South Carlton camp in Lincolnshire, England, where many Americans were stationed, have been investigated by a House of Lords committee. The Women's Royal Air Force units were in the middle of the camp, being surrounded by the Americans. It was alleged that on one occasion the house was raided by an American officer, who climbed through a window and "created a terrible disturbance." The officer referred to happens to be living in California today.

A world chase to catch a man charged with dodging the draft ended in Montana when Willard Fountain was tried by federal authorities on a charge of desertion and sentenced to 18 months in a federal prison. IRISH JUBILEE ST. PATRICK'S EVE

Delegates from the thirteen Irish societies of Alameda and Contra Costa counties met last night and planned an Irish Jubilee for St. Patrick's eve to be held in the Oakland Auditorium Opera House Tuesday, March 16.

A two-part program was outlined. Celebration of the day will come first, including literary, musical, dance and specialty numbers. Several noted artists will appear in the program, the O'Neill sisters of San Francisco, Lowell Redfield, batstone, and Eric St. Nure, tenor, of New York. These stars will be followed by Irish songs and dancing by the assembly.

Attorney Samuel Sherridge will be the speaker of the evening and with him on the program for audience will be Judge Leonard Flood, Andrew J. Gallagher and Attorney James Gaffney.

Closing of the bond drive in the two Bayshore counties will conclude the jubilee. It is predicted that the $100,000 quota will be oversubscribed.

Dear Big Sisters, World:

Did you ever wish you could put introductions and Puss all aside and go straight up to somebody and talk right into her heart? I have you did—for then you will understand how I am feeling about YOU today. I want you to forget that this is a newspaper and that I am only a sinner and I want you to let me in. It's a selfish want—for back of it is a big need. You see, Big Sister, it's this way. A Paper and a Woman have dreamed a dream for the children of Oakland. It's a dream as beautiful and glad as Fairyland, as tender and deep as a mother's hope for her little pal. A wonderful dream, and THE TRIBUNE and I want it to come true. But we can't do it without YOU.

So will you come and let me tell you about it. We're going to have a party next Friday afternoon, at 2:45, in the Sunshine Room on the TRIBUNE House Roof. It isn't to be for the kiddies this time, although there will be kiddies there to dance and sing and play for you, and some surprise that will make your program history in Oakland. But the party itself is for you. I want to tell you something—something about a paper, something about a dream, much about YOU. Every mother and teacher, every grown up who loves kiddies will you come—in your own dress if you wish, with the kiddie of her too tiny to leave—bring with your heart open to let me in. For I want to come into your heart, Big Sister World—and when I'm in, I want to stay.

Child Welfare Week to Swell Fund for Milk

By EDNA B. KINARD

With the period of March 23-27 accepted as Child Welfare week, with Federation of Mothers' Clubs turning attention generally to nutrition and providing breakfasts to children who otherwise must be left hungry at their homes, particularly in the water-front schools of Oakland and in Berkeley, with Miss Jennie Partidge reporting to the district executive board, C. F. W. C., that skimmed milk is now being thrown into San Francisco sewer, such appropriations as an appeal was made to the City Council for funds to supply milk to undernourished children over two years old last fall. Such appropriations were found impossible at the time.

Dairy Association immediately offered to supply 500 quarts of milk to meet the emergency. One thousand quarts of milk per week were needed, according to the National Nurses' reports. The first gross contribution of $500 to the child welfare fund was made. An estimate of $3200 has been made to carry the work through a period of six months. When the new city budget is made up, the council will be asked again for sufficient funds to carry the work through a period of six months. Spiker Family Wars Over Baby's Custody

BALTIMORE, March 11.—Mrs. Vera Spiker's persistent determination to adopt the six-month-old child of her husband and Mrs. Emily Knowles Spiker, her newly acquired sister-in-law, threatens a breach in the happiness of the four Spikers.

The little English bride of a month, who was brought to this country to marry the brother of the man who fathered her child, wants to keep her baby.

The families are living across the street from each other. The baby is still with his mother, but the wife of Percy Spiker, after astonishing the world by her breadth of vision in forgiving her husband's dereliction and arranging the marriage between the English girl and her husband's brother, now plans to go into court in a few days and ask the right to adopt the baby.

Easy to Make This
Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families suffer by the prompt results. Inexpensive, and serves as a cough remedy.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several kinds of oils that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of other ingredients. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pine in a pint bottle, fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children like it.

You can't feel this remedy as a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistent, but it will go away. The remedy is usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pine is a highly concentrated compound of essential oils, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

For "24 ounces of Pine" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pine Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

TO DARKEN HAIR
APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darning your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrous.—Advertisement.

THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE
NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

What It Is and How It Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force In Many Instances

SHOULD BE PRESCRIBED BY EVERY DOCTOR AND USED IN EVERY HOSPITAL
Says Editor of "Physicians' Who's Who."

Take plain bitro-phosphate, the advice of these physicians to thin, delicate, nervous people who lack vim, energy and nerve force and they seem to be able to prove the efficacy of this preparation to warrant the recommendation. Moreover, if we judge from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles with their excessive thinness, we are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply the phosphate more abundantly than bitro-phosphate, known as "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" and is sold by Read Bros. and Chemists all over the world. It is a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying

URGE RAISE
FOR FACULTY

The State Board of Control has under consideration today a request of regents and officials of the University of California for an increase in faculty salaries. Increases necessary to keep the present high standard of professors on the faculty of the university must aggregate $500,000 a year for the 800 persons on the teaching staff. Regent Guy C. Earl told the board in Sacramento late yesterday in reference to getting more revenue for the university.

President David P. Hearnes and Controller Ralph Merritt also represented the university at the conference.

Eastern universities are enabled to pay more money because of donations of millions of dollars which have been made as a result of educational fund campaigns conducted during the past six months. Earl said.

Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt, president of Mills College, pointed out the need for increases to pay the school teachers at a luncheon of the San Francisco Advertising club yesterday, declaring that there are 40,000 schoolrooms in the State of New York closed by lack of teachers.

TENANTS DRAFT
PROFITEER LAW

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—A draft of an amendment to the State statutes to prohibit profiteering in all lines is being made as a preliminary step toward the circulation of initiative petitions by the Tenants' Protective Association of San Francisco in the warfare on unreasonably high rents. The contemplated writ of mandate from the Supreme Court will not be asked for at present. The newly proposed legislation is designed to meet all cases of profiteering. The petitions will be placed in circulation within a fortnight.

Tenants and landlords were given opportunity to lay their cases before the public welfare committee of the Board of Supervisors this morning. Lists of apartment houses and hotels which have been raised beyond a reasonable sum are being prepared for publication by the association. San Francisco association of tenants is circulating a petition for the purpose of having assessments increased by the Board of Supervisors in cases where unfair rentals are being charged.

California Child
Labor Law Praised

A committee of Big Sisters will be organized to co-operate with the school authorities in the enforcement of the child labor laws, as the result of an address delivered yesterday by Miss Emma Duke, who is touring the country in the interests of the National Child Labor Committee.

Miss Duke declared that the California laws relating to the employment of women and children were models for other States. Theatrical performances by children were scorned. Attention was directed to conditions in the cotton plantations in Imperial valley.

Lieutenant-Commander Hudspeth, matron of the Salvation Army Home at Beulah, was a second speaker at the Big Sisters program.

SUIT AGAINST
JANE O'ROARK
IS ABANDONED

Miss Jane O'Roark, Oakland actress, will not have to battle the cruel world minus her eight little old theatrical trunks and the finery therein. Her case has been dropped by consent of all concerned in the little melodrama, which developed complications when an imaginary piano mentioned in a mortgage held against the actress prompted her to relate her story of the cruel work-a-day world.

Superior Judge George E. Crothers in San Francisco informed Miss O'Roark when she appeared for the last act of the little melodrama that no further questions would be asked concerning her ability to liquidate the $351 debt owed William M. Wandland of Los Angeles. Miss O'Roark's story related the first day of her hearing indicated that Wandland had given her money and checks and had sought to camouflage the transactions with a business favor by securing them with a mortgage and that he had had foresight enough to realize that Mrs. Wandland would be more readily convinced if something besides clothes were listed—hence the imaginary piano.

Alexander Stewart is to direct the chorus for the preliminary rehearsal and D. McArthur is to be organizer and assistant director of the chorus. Applications for membership may be made to McCarthy, 733 Haight, Oakland, telephone Lakeside 2829.

HARRY NEW'S LATE PLEA IS STUDIED HERE

Harry S. New's plea that Miss Freda Lesser committed suicide, made in an affidavit in Los Angeles and confirmed by him in his cell in San Quentin, would have been inconsistent with his plea of insanity, and as the insanity plea was considered stronger, the suicide theory was not brought into the defense, in the opinion of Deputy District Attorney Myron Harris of Alameda county.

New's statement that the "truth sounded so ridiculous" that no jury would have believed it, is not necessarily true, Harris says.

New serving a sentence of from ten years to life for killing Miss Lesser in his automobile, New sent an affidavit to Miss Edna Clancy, his half sister in Los Angeles, telling how Miss Lesser committed suicide with his gun when he had objected to an illegal operation. He involved a nurse and a doctor in his statement, saying that they urged the operation.

INCONSISTENCY POINTED OUT

"Undoubtedly New talked over with his defense all the possible pleas that he might make and the insanity proposition was considered the strongest," Harris said.

"As to why he did not bring into the defense the nurse and doctor who, he alleges, urged Miss Lesser to have an illegal operation performed, you can very easily see that such a thing would have been inconsistent. It would have been an attempt to prove a reason for the suicide or murder. Insanity is a lack of reason. The defense did not want to indicate that he had reasoned anything out at all."

"The plea he made was the regular insanity plea—of insanity and avoidance. The following four questions determine this condition:

"Did he know the difference between right and wrong?"

"Did he know the nature and quality of the act he committed?"

"Did he know it was a crime to commit the act? (Why did he take the body to the police station if he did not know it was a crime?)"

"Did he know the commission of said act would entail punishment?"

"The insanity plea was chosen instead of the suicide theory because the former was the strongest defense, and for this reason only," Deputy District Attorney Rogers said.

"He had the most able counsel and if there had been a single additional point to present in his behalf, they would have presented it," Leonard Compton, probation officer, said.

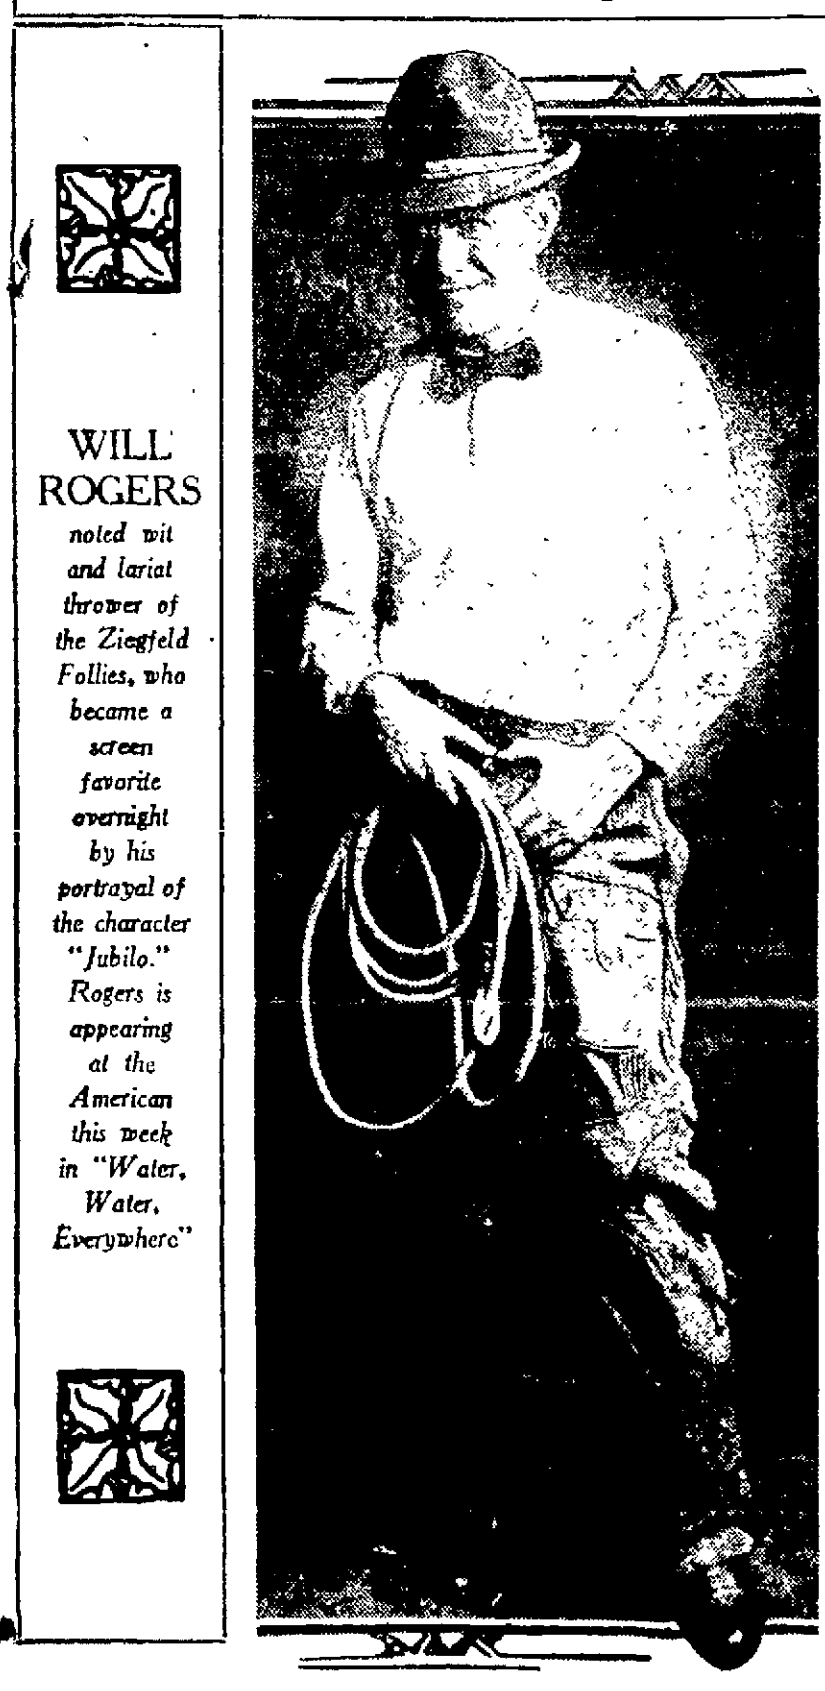

"If the testimony of Dr. White of Los Angeles can be relied upon, New is certainly a very low type mentally. He is classified as a child, and I cannot see how any credence can be given to this latest outburst."

While they were on their fatal ride, New declares in his affidavit made public by Miss Clancy, he and Miss Lesser discussed her proposed operation. She became angry and sat in the back seat. Under the seat she found New's gun, given him by J. L. Anderson. New says she then shot herself. He drove to the Los Angeles police station with the body and there, it is alleged, confessed to the crime. Later he denied his guilt and was found guilty of a crime. He was received at San Quentin February 3, certified as physically fit, and put to work in the jute mill. Dr. L. L. Stanley certifies that his health is very good.

Horse Hair Lariat Spoiled By Yam That Will Rogers Told

Youngster's Snake Idea Was Good; But Film Star Left Prize Rope Around Very Carelessly

Will Rogers, famous picture star, is bewailing the loss of his prize lariat—a horsemanship lasso presented him by a famous Mexican vaquero, and worth $50. And it was all because he told stories to children, while "on location" in "Water, Water Everywhere," his current play at the American Theater.

A group of ranch youngsters gathered to watch the film company at work; Rogers made friends with the kiddies, and told them several strange yarns. One was that if you put a horse hair into water it turns into a snake.

The next day his prize lariat was missing. Search was fruitless. Finally they found it soaking in a pool. The kiddies had put it there and were waiting eagerly to see it start to squirm. But it was Rogers who did the squirming—in real anguish, too!

Will Rogers in his new play, and Alice Joyce in "Slaves of Pride," are the American features now playing. "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," by Fox, Jr., featuring Jack Pickford, is announced for next week.

LAWYER FOR WIELER IS THREATENED

Three anonymous letters threatening "to get him" if he did not cease defending radicals have been received by Attorney W. B. Cleary, defending John G. Wieler, on trial for criminal syndicalism. Cleary made public today for the first time.

Cleary stated that he had not paid any attention to the letters, but destroyed them without notifying the police. One letter was written in a back-hand scrawl, Cleary said, in an evident effort to disguise the handwriting, and the other two were written in an illiterate manner. Cleary said he received the last during the examination of jurors in the present trial. An unsigned typewritten letter was also received by the Defense League which contained similar threats, it was stated.

The letters received by Cleary all asked him if he considered himself a good American in defending radicals, Cleary said, and then warned him to cease his efforts in their behalf or they would "get him."

The Wieler trial today was confined to testimony by handwriting experts in an effort to prove that Wieler sent the bomb notes received by Captain of Detectives Walter J. Petersen, Supervisor Emmet Hayden of San Francisco and Mrs. Mark Gerstle, former four-minute speaker for the Liberty Loan.

After further cross-examination of Carl Eisenschmel, choreographer, the prosecution placed E. O. Heinrichs, another handwriting expert, on the stand to prove that an exemplar written by Wieler was the same as the envelopes in which the bomb notes were received.

The prosecution is expected to close its case late this afternoon. Among the witnesses subpoenaed by the defense is Chauncey McGovern, handwriting expert, and V. C. Doaslaugh, member of the Boilermakers' Union, of which Wieler is a member.

"Mother" Jones Will Arrive Tomorrow

"Mother" Jones, who for thirty years has been an active worker in the organized labor movement, and is coming to Oakland in an effort to settle the shipyard strike, will arrive at 7:53 tomorrow morning. This information was given in a telegram received today from Los Angeles by V. C. Doaslaugh, secretary of the Metal Trades Council. Arrangements have not been made as to where "Mother" Jones will address the working men after her arrival. Doaslaugh said today.

Stockton Woman's Hearing On Auto Charge Determined

Mrs. William Lord, wife of the general manager of the American Express Company in Stockton, who was arrested last Friday on the charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated, appeared before Justice Harry W. Pulifer yesterday evening for arraignment. Her preliminary hearing was set for March 21. She was released last Saturday on $1,000 cash bail after spending twenty-four hours in the county jail.

George Oakes, Hayward editor, who was arrested Tuesday on a charge of driving his automobile on the left hand side of the street, appeared before Judge Robert Edgar of Berkeley this morning and was fined $10.

Oiga Arntzen, daughter of Mrs. O. A. Arntzen of 2336 Dwight way, Berkeley, and a pupil of the McKinley school, was struck by an automobile last night driven by Mrs. A. C. Moreland, 231 Cottage avenue, Point Richmond. The accident occurred in front of the school. The girl was badly bruised but not seriously injured. Mrs. Moreland was not arrested.

Harrison Manley, 2647 Ellsworth avenue, was flying a kite near his home when he was struck by a car driven by W. W. Yates, 2130 East Twenty-fifth street, Oakland. He was taken to the Roosevelt hospital. Yates was not arrested.

Arthur Hiscox, 16-year-old high school boy living at 51 Plaza drive, Berkeley, was this morning arrested by W. M. Bond, deputy sheriff, and turned over to the police on a charge of driving his automobile forty miles an hour in North Berkeley. Jack Dunn, 1610 Central avenue, Alameda, also 16 years old, was arrested by Policeman Henry Villa this morning for exceeding the speed limit along College avenue. Both boys will be turned over to the juvenile court.

Redmond S. Staats, Alameda county supervisor from Berkeley, had a narrow escape yesterday when he risked his life to avert a collision with another machine in which a woman and child were riding. Rather than collide with the other automobile, driven by William Stephens, Berkeley realty salesman, in which Mrs. J. K. Kays and her small daughter were riding, Staats swerved his machine to one side at College avenue and Parker street, Berkeley, and crashed into an iron post. He escaped with slight injuries but the machine was badly damaged.

WOODCOCK ATTORNEYS ACCUSED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Contempt proceedings were filed today against State Senator William Woodcock and C. H. Connick, attorneys for Edward Woodcock and his wife, Mrs. Alice Woodcock.

They are accused of being in contempt in failing to disclose the hiding place of Woodcock who is facing charges of perjury, to the grand jury.

Upon the filing of an affidavit by the district attorney's office, in which Grand Jury Foreman Harrel-

HOUSEWIVES
PRICE LAW

The primary task of the League of Housewives, whose organization will be perfected tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the council chambers of Oakland City Hall, will be to draft and pass before the state legislature a bill designed to create by the state a body similar to the Federal Trade Commission.

New Council to Direct
Work of Americanization
Is Created by Citizens

Taking upon its shoulders the task of co-ordinating and, in part at least, of directing the work of Americanization in Oakland, thus eliminating the unnecessary duplication of effort toward making better citizens of the foreign element, a new organization known as the Citizens' Council for Americanization Agencies was formed last night at a dinner gathering at the Hotel Harrison, when Oakland City Hall, will be to draft some fifty citizens, representative of and about the work of the various organizations and institutions of the state, probably through initiative in Oakland, adopted a resolution setting up a bill designed to create by the state a body similar to the Federal Trade Commission.

representative of all Americanization work. Addresses were made by R. Justin Miller of the State Commission of Immigration and Housing and Professor Leon J. Richardson of the University of California. Miller told of the work of the commission along the lines of Americanization and of the difficulties encountered.

"To put over an intelligent program of Americanization," said Miller, "all depends on the capitalization of resources and of directing the work from one central committee such as has been organized here tonight."

TO EDUCATE IMMIGRANTS
In speaking of the foreigners' impressions of American government as one of the first steps in Americanizing him, Miller said, "Contact with the lower courts gives the emigrant a distorted idea of American system of self government. He is confused. He finds that if he appears in court without a shyster lawyer that he goes to jail or is told to get out of the country and stay out. If he hires a shyster lawyer, he more than likely will not go to jail and three chances to one his case will never go to court. He doesn't understand that."

The emigrant goes to school and learns all about our wonderful jury system, but when he needs a jury, he soon learns that the district attorney can empanel a jury either convict or acquit him, and if he doesn't have to go much further than the street to get them."

Dr. Richardson explained the course being conducted by the University Extension for Americanization teachers. Those present at the meeting last night were: Judge T. W. Harris, Judge Jesse

Husband Suicide, Is Claim;
Wife's Suit Asks Insurance

For the purpose of collecting $5000 insurance on the life of Edward B. Dunham, formerly a salesman for Lawrence & Company, wholesale dry goods firm, who disappeared a year ago after he had written a letter declaring he intended to jump into the bay, Mrs. Lucia Dunham, 2707 Rose street, Berkeley, is suing the Equitable Life Assurance Society before Judge Joseph K. Ford.

Evidence to show that Dunham carried out his intentions and that he is dead included the testimony of a detective agency of Los Angeles to the effect that the bay had been searched, and also the coast from Monterey to San Francisco, in an effort to find the body. Circulars were sent to every police department

Safe Upside Down
Makes Robbery Easy

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Yeggmen robbed the safe in the Fillmore and Ellis street branch of George Haas & Sons Candy company of approximately $1000 early today. Instead of using an explosive, the intruders pried the safe off an elevated platform, turned it bottom side up and then apparently hammered a hole through the metal composition. It was possible to reach the contents merely by putting an arm and hand through the opening. The intruders entered by breaking a door at the rear.

GAS HEATER
FIRES WRAPS,
WOMAN DIES

Fatally burned when her clothing caught fire from a gas radiator in the Masonic Temple at a meeting of the Order of Eastern Star last night, Mrs. Johanna House of 592 Thirty-sixth street died at 6 o'clock this morning at the Emergency hospital.

Mrs. House was standing near the radiator on the third floor of the temple at Twelfth and Washington, when her clothes became ignited from the heat. Her screams attracted the attention of E. I. Knowles of 561 Sixteenth street, the elevator operator, who dragged her into the cage and put out the blaze with his overcoat while the car shot down to the first floor with Mrs. House writhing hysterically from pain.

When the car reached the street entrance the woman was unconscious.

She was rushed to the Central Emergency hospital, where physicians said she could not recover. Miss Gertrude House, her daughter, who is a well known music teacher in this city, sought to have her removed to the Providence hospital, but Dr. O. D. Hamlin refused permission. He said that to move the

TRIBUNE FILMS,
T. AND D. OFFER,
WIDE IN RANGE

From church congregations to traffic demonstrations—such is the wide range of events on The TRIBUNE-T. and D. News Weekly this week at the T. and D. theater.

The church congregation is that composed of the Plymouth church leaving Sunday morning services in Piedmont avenue. President David P. Barrows appears in the many scenes taken at the University of California's Leap Year Labor Day. Labor activities, chariot races, sand bar rushes and other stunts.

Traffic regulation demonstrations, made in co-operation with the Oakland police and fire departments, show the loss through fire damage which can be sustained when an auto owner parks his machine near a fire hydrant.

Blanche Hertz "kiddies," those talented youngsters who entertained and delighted audiences at the T. and D. theater a month ago, are shown with "Cliff" Durant. The "kiddies" appear in a return engagement beginning next Sunday.

woman would mean instant death. Knowles' hands were badly burned.

Mrs. House, who was prominent in Alameda county club circles, had gone to the hall to attend a meeting of the Athens Chapter, Order Eastern Star. She had arrived early and had stood to the third floor to get some wraps as she declared she was cold. It was while warming herself by the radiator that her evening gown caught fire.

Don't Buy the Cheapest
Piano You Can—Buy the Best
Piano You Can Afford

A good many people start out to buy a Piano with the idea of "how cheap" they can buy. They usually have only one thing in mind—"the price." They are naturally attracted to dealers making "price" the main talking point of their pianos.

Pianos are very intricate instruments—the plate and sounding board must be first-class in every respect; there are thousands of little parts which must be accurately made and fitted. Now this "mechanical" part costs, if the Piano is made properly and of good materials. The "tone" of the Piano is still another matter—the art of the manufacturer has endowed the instrument with a "soul," which we speak of usually as the "tone"—this, too, is figured in the cost of the instrument.

Therefore, if the purchaser desires an instrument which is a real piano with a "soul" and not just a piece of furniture, a substantial amount should be invested. Instead of figuring "how cheap," the purchaser should figure "how good" he can afford to buy—for the more money invested at a reliable Piano House, the better the instrument, the longer the service and the greater the satisfaction.

We carry an unusually large line of Pianos in only one quality—dependable quality—but we offer a wide range when graded as to price. As we gladly arrange convenient payment terms, it is remarkable how easy it is to acquire a really good piano.

A Sensible Cigarette

"Just Enough Turkish"

Facts like these make Fatima's place among cigarettes unique. A few years ago, the "proper" thing on such state occasions would have been an expensive, fancy-boxed, straight Turkish cigarette.

Today, things are different.

Men have their choice on taste rather than price. That Fatima should be so clearly the choice of men who can afford anything they like, shows that most smokers really prefer—not too much Turkish tobacco in their cigarettes nor too little—but "just enough Turkish."
